THE PUNTA GORDA HERALD has a "holy horror" of written communications intended for publication.
The following from the Tampa Tribune explains it:—Communications for publication in the Tribune, other than from regular correspondents, must hereafter be typewritten. The Tribune has been deluged lately with a lot of communications so poorly written that they gave the printers and proof-readers no end of trouble and some of them finally had to be copied before being submitted to the compositor. This requires too much time and hereafter such articles will be immediately deposited in the waste-basket.

Violent Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and Perhaps a Life Saved.

"A short time ago I was taken with a violent attack of diarrhoea and believe I would have died if I had not gotten relief," says John J. Patton, a leading citizen of Patton, Ala. "A friend recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy. I bought a 25 cent bottle and after taking three doses of it was entirely cured. I consider it the best remedy in the world for bowel complaint.
For sale by all Druggists.

The Charleston Post says: "Someone has fixed upon a passage in the Book of Revelations which applies to President Roosevelt: 'And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies and power was given unto him forty and two months.' From the day he succeeded McKinley to the expiration of his term on March 4 next, Roosevelt will have been President forty-two months. That is the limit of his period of power."

One Lady's Recommendation Sold Fifty Boxes of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets.

I have, I believe, sold fifty boxes of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets on the recommendation of one lady here, who first bought a box of them about a year ago. She never tires of telling her neighbors and friends about the good qualities of these Tablets.—P. M. Shore, Druggist, Rochester, Ind. The pleasant purgative effect of these Tablets makes them a favorite with ladies everywhere. For sale by all druggists.

Hon. J. Pope Brown, chairman of the Georgia Railroad Commission, has moved a reduction of passenger rates from three to two cents per mile on all main lines of railroads operating in that State. He contends that three cents per mile is excessive compared with the accommodations provided the travelling public.

Suicide Prevented.

The startling announcement that a preventative of suicide had been discovered will interest many. A run-down system, or despondency invariably precedes suicide and something has been found that will prevent that condition that makes suicide likely. At the first thoughts of self destruction take Electric Bitters.
It being a great tonic and nerve build-up system. It's also a great Stomach, Liver, and Kidney regulator. Only 50 cents. Satisfaction guaranteed by

The Record reports that W. J.
Sherman has succeeded in growing in St. Augustine cauliflower seed that, on being planted, germinated in came from Italy and cost $30.00 per pound.

Puts An End To It All.

A grievous ailment comes as a result of unbearable pain from over taxed organs. Dizziness, Backache, Liver complaint and Constipation. But thanks to Dr. King's New Liver Pills they put an end to it all. They are gentle but thorough. Try them. Only 25 cents. Guaranteed by all Druggist

Some people who hold up their of social equality, seem to take great pride in educating their sons in Northern colleges alongside of negro students.—Lake City Index.

The Death Penalty.

A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cut or puny boil has paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve ever handy.
It's the best Salve on earth and will prevent fatality when Burns, Sores, Ulcers, and Piles threaten. Only 25 cents at all druggists.

ALLEGED CONFESSION

What Cooper is Said to Have Told a Fellow Prisoner.

Tampa Tribune, Aug. 13.—A good many papers of the State are just now endeavoring to create the impression that the courts have not dealt fairly with Isiah E. Cooper, the Punta Gorda murderer, and that Governor Jennings performed a noble and praiseworthy act when he gave the red-handed slayer a new lease on life.

There is much talk in these papers about "new evidence" having been discovered. As a matter of fact, there is not one iota of truth in the statement that anything has been discovered that is favorable to Cooper. It is a fact, however, that "new evidence" has been discovered—but this "new evidence" is a confession of the murder by Cooper, made by him fully and freely, without hope of reward or fear of punishment.

Evidence of this confession is now being secured and will be laid before the proper authorities in a few days. In this confession, the Tribune is informed, Cooper acknowledged that he killed Bowman, but claims that he did it at the instigation of other persons.

A perusal of the correspondence published, under a Tallahassee date line, which passed between Governor Jennings, Sheriff Fielder and others concerning the case, reveals that, immediately upon receiving from Sheriff Fielder a telegram stating that Cooper swore by Almighty God that he was innocent, the Governor sent the message stopping the execution. The telegram of the Sheriff was probably based upon Cooper's alleged "written statement," prepared to be read from the gallows. The Tribune now learns that this statement was not written by Cooper at all, as at first announced, but by C. C. Chollar, the Arcadia banker. Furthermore, Cooper in the statement upon which Mr. Chollar based this "written statement," made several contradictory statements, and also named a number of prominent citizens of DeSoto county whom he charged with being members of a whitecap organization.

These contradictory statements were all carefully edited out of the final statement of the murderer, and the names of the alleged whitecaps were all carefullly cut out. Had the statement gone before the public as Cooper gave it, it would have clinched the belief of nine-tenths of the people familiar with the case that he is guilty.

The Tribune has come in for some criticism from a few small-bore papers because it criticized the Governor's action in the case. The Tribune believes in the enforcement of the law and the execution of its just sentences. In approval of its utterances on this case, it has the sentiment of the people of Punta Gorda, where this base murder was committed, as voiced by the fearless HERALD of that city. These people who are on the scene and who are more familiar with all the circumstances than any outsider, not excepting the Governor of Florida, are satisfied, beyond a reasonable doubt, that Cooper is guilty and they want him hung without further delay.

All this talk of "new evidence" is Cooper's favor is nothing more nor less than an effort to manufacture a sentiment in Cooper's behalf. As the Tribune states above, the only new evidence in sight is that of the confession of Cooper, which will be made public in a few days.

LOGIC ON THE COOPER CASE.

The opinions of the people and the newspapers nearest the scene of I. E.
Cooper's crime, should unquestion-ably have more weight than the views of those at a distance. People and papers a hundred or more miles away know nothing of the situation, of the past criminal history of this region, of the present conditions here, of the evidence against I. E.
Cooper, of his bad character in other utter untruthfulness and an unreliability predominate, and they are, consequently, unprepared to speak with any degree of authority about the case.

The Fort Myers Press of last week, however, shows a full understanding of the situation and conditions of this section and concludes a brief review of the Cooper case with the following sound logic:

"Should it develop that the Governor had good and sufficient reasons for this postponing the execution of Cooper, he is to be commended. Should he, however, fail to show that there exists any real grounds for delaying the execution, he will have made a grievous mistake, and one that may result in the people becoming tired of the law's failures and taking matters in their own hands. Either Cooper is guilty and should be set at liberty, or he is innocent and should be set at liberty. There can be no half-way punishment in such a case. An outraged people are waiting to see what is to be done.
If the Governor can appreciate the feelings of a people who have been so tired of lawlessness and anxious to see the guilty punished for the sake of protection to themselves and their property, he will set speedily in the matter, or it may cause him to regret his action for the remainder of his days."

Besides the foregoing, an able lawyer of Tampa writes the following to THE HERALD, dated Aug. 12th:

"Have just read your views on the Cooper case. They are strong and to the point.

"Have just been informed that one of the jurors that sat on the case was induced, by some means, to make an affidavit to the effect that he had always had a reasonable doubt as to Cooper's guilt, but that the other eleven jurors persuaded him to agree to the verdict against his conscientious convictions. I have not heard the name of the juror, but I understand that such an affidavit has been furnished the Pardoning Board. If cases are to be finally decided on such affidavits and sympathy for the guilty, ninety-nine out of a hundred will go free.

"The public thinks that the statement made by Cooper just before the hour set for his execution was written by himself all alone in the solitude of his cell, when, in truth and in fact, the Times-Union correspondent went to the jail and asked him if he had anything to say and he took down what Cooper said, but did not give the entire statement for publication, as Cooper accused several of the leading citizens of Punta Gorda of the crime, saying that they were a band of 'white-cappers.'"

"The whole statement should have been published, I think, and the circumstances under which it was made given in full. If it had been it would have appeared still more fishy.

"I would like to know what new evidence that is the Governor has.
It seems to be a kind of Star chamber, ex parte proceedings.

"DUBITAS."

JUSTICE TO PUNTA GORDA.

The Jacksonville Metropolis, which is always ready to defend the good name of the people of any community of Florida, in its issue of the 12th inst, thus speaks in behalf of Punta Gorda:

The Metropolis is gratified to learn that all of that sensational stuff sent out to the world of hanging Gov. Jennings in effigy last Friday, at Punta Gorda, and shooting the effigy full of holes, and indignant demonstrations in general, was untrue and a slander upon the good people and name of DeSoto county. To Editor A. P. Jordan, of THE PUNTA GORDA HERALD, is due the honor of promptly denying the injurious reports, as seen by his telegram in THE METRO-POLIS Wednesday. Here in Jacksonville the impression gained currency that Arcadia was in the hands of a mob, all on account of the Governor's repudiation of Cooper, the condemned murderer of John Marshall Bowman, at Punta Gorda, who was to be hung at noon last Friday.

There is nothing more creditable to people and place than the obedience to law and good order, and it is always with regret that THE Metropolis has to announce violations, and THE Metropolis stands ready to assist Mr. Jordan and others in counteracting the evil reports sent out by the Associated Press.

It was intimated that the doomed man would be put to death by a mob probably Friday night, and this we are glad to state was untrue.

Cooper is not by any means exempt from punishment by being respited a few days. It is only to give him a chance to show his innocence, which he has so persistently protested in from the first. If he fails to do that he will yet hang or be imprisoned for life. Florida is a good State, and every community has a right to be jealous of its good name, and we admire the promptness of Mr. Jordan's denial and the interest he manifested in his county's behalf. All praise to the people of the slandered county for its good conduct.

Taken With Cramps.

Wm. Kirms, a member of the bridge gang near Littleport, was taken suddenly ill Thursday night with cramps and a kind of cholera.
His case was so severe that he had to have the members of the crew wait upon him and Mr. Gifford was called and consulted. He told them he had a medicine in the form of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he thought would help him out and accordingly several doses were administered with the result that the fellow was able to be around next day. The incident speaks quite highly of Dr. Gifford's medicine.—Elkader, Iowa, Argus.

This remedy never fails. Keep it in your home, it may save life. For sale by all Druggists.

WATERMELON SYRUP DELICIOUS.

In York county, Virginia, they are making watermelon syrup, which is said to be rich and soft in taste and as good as it sounds. The south sends the earliest watermelons away. She can by no means eat all of the later and more delicious ones.
Inevitably there is a great waste of watermelons. Watermelon syrup, watermelon sugar—here are new industries in the bud. If the flavor of watermelon syrup is as happy as it is painted, maple syrup will have to look to its laurels. Besides, it is getting harder every year, in the cities, at least, to get genuine maple syrup.
Everybody's Magazine for August.

End Of Bitter Fight.

"Two physicians had a long and stubborn fight with an abscess on my right lung," writes J. F. Hughes of DuPont, Ga. "and gave me up.
Everybody thought that my time had come. As a new resort I tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. The benefit I received was striking and I was on my feet in a few days. Now I've entirely regained my health." It conquers all Coughs, Colds, and Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed by all Druggists; price 50 cents and Trial bottle free.

Cholera Infantum.

This disease has lost its terror since Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy came into general use. The uniform success which attends the use of this remedy in all cases of bowel complaints in children has made it a favorite wherever its value has been known.
For sale by all Druggists.

THE TREM TOMATO.

A Lake Butler correspondent of The Times Union says: Please give me space in your valuable paper to tell the farmers of this State what I have got in my garden.
Any one that doubts me can see for themselves as I will be glad to show them the greatest tomato in the world.
It is Solzer's tree tomato. It is now nine weeks old, 7 1/2 feet high, and has limbs 6 feet long. It is 7 inches in circumference at the ground and has 150 tomatoes on it. The largest is 5 1/2 inches in circumference. They are solid, and it is the wonder of everyone who sees it. The tomatoes are the finest in flavor I ever saw. I picked the first ripe tomato eight weeks from planting. The plant stands both wet and dry weather and thrives in our climate. It can be grown four feet apart each way, which will give 2,735 plants to the acre, which will each yield one bushel. There has been no sign of rot or blight this season.

I find nothing better for liver derangement and constipation than Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets.—J. F. Andrews, Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by all druggists.

GILCHRIST IN THE WEST.

He Writes About the Great Things
He is Seeing.

Hotel Canon, Yellowstone Park Montana, Aug. 2.—Before leaving Colorado Springs, a trip was made to the greatest gold producing field in the world, Cripple Creek. This entire section of the country is over 10,000 feet high. There never was a richer, such beautiful, picturesque scenery, deep gorges, mountain torrents, snow-clad peaks, red and white colored mountains with green foliage. Talk about some railroads looping the mountains as difficult engineering feats; there are a dozen or more on that trip.

At Denver, two old friends were met, who gave me letters to some of the mine operators, both at Cripple Creek and Leadville. At Cripple Creek, the mine visited is known as the Gold Coin Mine. They let one down 1,000 feet in an elevator, so quickly that you are fairly dazed.
Coming up, you feel like you are lifted out of your boots. It was quite cold, especially at Leadville.

From Leadville to Salt Lake, you pass through and along the Canyon of the Colorado River. This country shows the results of irrigation. In a country where sage bush 1 to 2 ft. high is the only natural growth, except on the river bank, by irrigation there are vast orchards of pears, peaches, and apples. Alfalfa, wheat, potatoes and other grains and vegetables grow luxuriantly. You pass through the Utah Desert, where it was quite warm. The soil there is much the same as in the luxuriant fields. There is some alkali, which water will wash out. Where there were aunt beds, there is no alkali, as the alkali would eat them up. The same sage bush looking country extends into and beyond Salt Lake City.

In 1847, when Brigham Young and 148 other men and 3 women arrived there, a desert stared them in the face. The altitude was high, almost 6,000 ft. They knew nothing of irrigation. There was scarcely wood enough for fire, only a little in the valleys where there were running streams. Yet today, Salt Lake City is the forest city of the West. The streets are 132 feet wide. He had no pillar of fire by night or cloud by day to guide him to this apparent desert, now a beautiful city of 35,000 to 40, 000 people.

He built a wondrous temple costing over $3,000,000. The tabernacle, capable of seating 8,000 to 10,000 people, with no inside supports for this vast dome, was also built. It is the largest wooden dome in the world, 250 by 150 ft. At that time, he had no iron with which to tie together the various parts of the arch. Rawhide was used. The acoustic properties are wonderful. 250 ft. from me, one of the authorities, at a recital, spoke in an ordinary tone of voice. It was distinctly heard. It is claimed that a whisper can be heard 200 ft. away. There is a marvelous organ in this tabernacle which I heard played. By touching the keys, songs are sung, representing the various shades of the human voice, low and soft, or with the effect of a choir of hundreds of trained voices.

The wonderful results of the management of Brigham Young, leading his people through the desert, the results accomplished, his successful dealings with the Indians, mark Brigham Young as one of the best all-round men of the last 50 years.
He was undoubtedly a man of great force, power and strength and of great executive ability. The Mormons claim that he was inspired, but that no one but an inspired man could have foreseen the probabilities of such a desert looking country, which he selected in which to build his city.

The mountains are full of precious minerals. Many of the mining kings have built beautiful homes in Salt Lake City.

No one visiting the city should fail to bathe in the lake. The water is so heavy with salt that one can not sink in it. The volume of water displaced by my body was almost
